CALLING ALL HOSTS!

Hosting the chalet for a half day on the weekend is a great way to get to know our members and their families. The host's main goal is to make our visitors and members feel welcome.

Some people aren't sure where to pay their fee or sign in. Others are wondering about the trail conditions. New visitors might have questions on the level of trail difficulty. We pride ourselves in our inclusiveness and friendliness so what better way than to be a host! Hosts wear an identification tag so you will easily be recognized by anyone requiring information. Often friends pair up to host for a half day – one person hosts while the other goes out for a ski. Alan Bale will post a hosting schedule once skiing is underway. Try signing up for half a day Saturday or Sunday. Questions? You can e-mail Alan at:
